

Artists Needed!

Join Lexington Children's Theatre:

2026 Fall Tour productions:

Super Cowgirl and Mighty Miracle

by José Cruz González (Grades PreK-3)

Mister E of Imagination: Tales of Edgar Alan Poe

by Larry and Vivian Snipes (Grades 4-6)

Dates: August 19, 2026 - December 12, 2026

We are seeking 2 self-identifying male and 2 self-identifying female performers to play multiple characters. Performers who can play an instrument and sing are encouraged to apply. Some tracks may play characters of multiple genders.

2027 Spring Tour productions:

Aesop's Fables: Live Onstage

by Larry and Vivian Snipes (Grades K-3)

Tomás and the Library Lady

by José Cruz González (Grades 4-8)

Dates: January 4, 2027 – May 8, 2027

We are seeking 2 self-identifying Latina performers, 1 self-identifying male performer, and 1 self-identifying female of any ethnicity to play multiple characters. Performers who can play an instrument and sing are encouraged to apply. Some tracks may feature characters of multiple genders.

Compensation details:

Salary ranges from $515-525 per week. Our 4-person, self-contained "run out" touring ensemble also performs in-house on our Main Stage and may attend promotional events. and teaches theatre workshops in schools. Mercedes Sprinter Tour Vehicle. Hotels and Townhouse Residence are provided during the contract.

Casting Contact:

Jeremy Kisling, Producing Artistic Director.
Email: lct.hiring@gmail.com

*Titles and Contract Dates are subject to change pending finalization of rights and calendar.

2027 1 Picture Book – 1 Lexington Production.

Pete the Cat by Sarah Hammond, Will Aronson, and Kimberly and James Dean (Grades Pre K – 4)

Everybody's favorite guitar-playing cat takes his buddy on a global adventure in this crowd-pleasing musical based on the book series.

We are seeking 3 male-presenting and 2 female-presenting performers of any ethnicity to play multiple characters. Performers who can play an instrument, sing, and dance are encouraged.

Compensation details:

Salary ranges from $525 - $540 a week. All performers are given housing for the duration of the contract. The contract will run from February 17 to April 2, 2027.

To Apply:

Visit <http://www.lctonstage.org/apply> to submit audition materials or use email: lct.hiring@gmail.com

Please submit:

- Your resume and Headshot
- Your dates available
- A video submission that includes:
 - 2 Contrasting monologues (roughly 1 minute each)
 - 16-32 bars of singing
 - Demonstration of your musical instrument ability (if applicable)

Equal Opportunity Employment:

Lexington Children's Theatre welcomes, celebrates, and seeks people of all ages, ethnicities, cultures, gender identities, sexual orientations, and physical and cognitive abilities to join our dynamic organization.

Our Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Statement

Lexington Children's Theatre is committed to providing a diverse season that allows every young person to see themselves on our stage, allowing us to work toward creating an equitable and antiracist environment for young people and their families throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky. We are working on consistent training for staff and the board on inclusiveness, diversity, equity, and accessibility. We understand that this learning is ongoing. But we will always do our best to make the world a better place. safer place for the young people we work with.